

Headlines from the Hall 18 October 2018

Dear Merchant Taylor

Congratulations to Katherine Finch who was elected to the Livery today and a very warm welcome to our new Apprentices who were bound yesterday:

Nicholas Allport

Hugo Anthony

Alexander Coleman

Angelina Dorlin-Barlow

Kate Taylor

Angus Tyrrell

And to our new Freemen:

Marcus Worsley (Patrimony)

Marina Williams (Servitude)

Anthony Mangnall (Servitude)

Shaun Miller (Servitude)

Alexandra Schofield (Servitude)

Robert Hurran (Redemption)

David Jackson (Redemption)

The Lord Mayor's Show - 10th November

7,000 people, 200 horses and 150 floats will travel from Mansion House to the Royal Courts of Justice on Sunday 10th November in a vibrant procession to welcome the new Lord Mayor to the role.

Once again we will be opening our doors for Merchant Taylors and their guests from 11am and will be serving a buffet lunch from 12.30. The chocolate fountain is always a favourite with the little ones (and big ones...) Tickets are £30 an adult, and £15 per child. Please email Kym Ash on kash@merchant-taylors.co.uk to buy.

Merchant Taylors' Associated Schools Concert of Remembrance and Hope - Sunday 11th November

This November marks the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War, a war that involved 250,000 boys under the age of 19, half of whom were wounded, died or taken prisoner.

Join us at the Birmingham Symphony Hall at 2.30pm to honour their bravery and sacrifice in a celebration of music, art, readings and poetry, performed by our talented young musicians from our schools. The concert will culminate in Mozart's Requiem conducted by the CBSO's Michael Seal.

To buy tickets click here.

Christmas Oratorio Concert - 10th December

In the run up to Christmas, we are hosting the Kilgour Consort, an ensemble of the finest young singers and professional baroque instrumentalists from the University of Cambridge and London's conservatoires, who will be performing four movements of Bach's Christmas Oratorio, his festive masterpiece, along with four exceptional soloists.

It will be directed by Alexander Hamilton (OMT), current organ scholar of Westminster Abbey. Timings are 7 - 9.30pm in the Great Hall with a drink on arrival, an interval and paybar. Everyone is welcome, please bring family and friends and spread the word among your music (and Christmas) lovers.

For tickets please email Kym on kash@merchant-taylors.co.uk.

February Livery Dinner Confirmed Date

We can now confirm that the date of the February Livery Dinner will be the 13th February (not the 6th which was listed as a possibility).

Royal Parks Half Marathon - 14th October

From left to right: Jack Featherby, Rachel Eggar, Alice Mills and Max Carter

Here they are, our four athletes who ran the Royal Parks Half Marathon last weekend, in aid of the Livery and Freeman Fund. This is the first time the LFF has bought charity places in a sports event, and we are delighted with our guinea pigs! Congratulations all four - and hope the legs have recovered!

The Livery Halls of the City of London Book - available now

Just published in association with the Worshipful Company of Chartered Architects is this magnificent book featuring specially commissioned photography of the 40 present day livery Halls. Merchant Taylors' Hall is covered in a beautifully illustrated six-page chapter, as well as being referred to throughout the book. This would make a fabulous present and is priced at £45. Available now from Waterstones and Hatchards, as well as smaller bookshops throughout the UK and online.

To find out more, or to add an MT event to these listings, please contact Georgina Annett at gannett@merchant-tailors.co.uk or on 020 7450 4452.

Merchant Tailors' Company

30 Threadneedle Street

London

EC2R 8JB

0207 450 4448