

Headlines from the Hall
7 February 2019

Dear Merchant Taylor

Have you left us a gift?

We are holding a 1327 social evening (for those members who have left us legacies) on Tuesday 12th February and would like to ensure we have invited all our legacy givers. If you have pledged a gift in your will to the Company or one of its charities, but have not told MT staff within the last five years, please do let the Philanthropy team know now (charities@merchant-taylors.co.uk), so we can include you.

Inter-Livery Ski Competition - 23-25th January 2019

We are delighted to report that the Merchant Taylors' ski team returned triumphant from the inter-livery skiing competition in Morzine in January.

Our ladies' team of Lissa Gillott, Lucinda Orr and Camilla Klemme won the ladies' team event; Lissa Gillott was second in the individual ladies and Jack Harvard Taylor was 10th overall out of 209 skiers. 38 livery companies took part.

The ladies' team and trophy

The company hired a chalet and together with the parties arranged by the organisers, a VERY good time was had by all.

We are looking for three more skiers to join the team next year. If you are interested in joining, please contact John Price or Jack Harvard Taylor, or email Faye Whitnall on FWhitnall@merchant-taylors.co.uk, who will put you in touch.

Freemen Dinner - 14th March

All Freemen and a guest are welcome at the always lively Freemen Dinner in the Hall at 6.45 for 7.30pm on Thursday, 14 March 2019. Invitations will be going out this week for you to book your place.

Quiz Night Correction

In the last Headlines, 'Annie's Angels', the runner up team in the Merchant Taylors' quiz night, was described as the Mistress's team, whereas in fact it was Lady Annie Harding's team. Credit where credit is absolutely due, and huge apologies to all brains involved.
